

In response to petition RM-11347, I encourage the FCC to not adopt the proposals as set forth. I believe that the current identification requirements for the amateur radio service are adequate. Identifications done at 10 minute intervals and at the end of each transmission, as stated in the current rules, work and work well. Again, it is my position that this petition, RM-11347, not be adopted.

Paul S. Miller
KI4PNL